

The banner is split into two main visual sections. The left section is a dark, vertical strip containing several glowing, irregular shapes in shades of orange and red, resembling flames or embers. The right section is a larger, horizontal area with a light gray, misty background. In the foreground of this section, there are faint, stylized outlines of what appear to be manga-style characters or figures, possibly in a dynamic pose. The text is centered in the right section.

NO, THAT'S

Inside the bubble, the text "DON'T THINK I CAN SEE YOU AS MORE THAN A FRIEND." is written in a bold, black, hand-drawn font, arranged in three lines.
